Two exceptional headliners
will launch the 36th edition

Montréal, April 6, 2022 - From July 12 au 24, the 36th Edition of the Festival International Nuits d'Afrique takes us on a whole new musical adventure to where African, Caribbean and American cultures come together.

This year marks the return of great internationally renowned musicians. Two big names that you definitely won't want to miss will be headlining the opening concerts for the indoor shows and the outdoor programming.

The charismatic TIKEN JAH FAKOLY will be headlining the festival's official opening concert at MTelus on July 13, 2022. Then, on July 19, 2022, the captivating FEMI KUTI will kick off the free outdoor programming on the festival's main stage in the Parterre of the Quartier des spectacles.

- OFFICIAL OPENING CONCERT -

TIKEN JAH FAKOLY

JULY 13, 2022
8 p.m. / MTelus

A true standard bearer for African youth whose thirst for freedom and change he carries with pride, Tiken Jah Fakoly is returning to the stage after a two-year hiatus.

His style of reggae, authentic and energetic, is ignited by traditional West-African rhythms and carries a message that is just as relevant as ever. This great Ivorian musician is gearing up for an outstanding opening concert at the 36th edition of Nuits d'Afrique.

Tickets on sale starting Friday, April 8, 2022, at 12 p.m.

- CONCERT LAUNCH OF THE OUTDOOR SITE -

FEMI KUTI & THE POSITIVE FORCE

Feat MÁDÉ KUTI

JULY 19, 2022

9:30 p.m. / Parterre of the Quartier des spectacles

Bearer of an impressive legacy, Femi Kuti, the son of the legendary Fela Kuti has continued to make his father's signature Afrobeat resonate hypnotically around the world for over three decades..

Backed by his monumental band, with its soaring sounds of brass and exultant waves of percussion instruments contending for the spotlight, his son Mádé Kuti will also be performing and making it a truly multigenerational afrobeat evening.
